

Make a one-off Donation

Join a community of supporters who are helping us to strengthen the nursing profession.

Making a one-off donation is one a great way to support what you are passionate about.

Our community of supporters contribute to the Nurses Memorial Centre because we're leading the research and development of patient care practices through the provision of scholarships to nursing leaders.

By making a one-off donation, you're helping us to honour the memory of the Australian nurses who sacrificed their lives or spent years in prisoner of war camps during WWII.
