

Prince Henry's Affiliates Scholarship

INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS

Prince Henry's Hospital was a large general hospital located at 236 St Kilda Road, Melbourne. It was established in 1934 and provided acute-care services for communities in Melbourne and regional Victoria until its closure in 1988. Many of the health and nursing services offered at Prince Henry's were transferred to the Monash Medical Centre. The Prince Henry's Hospital buildings were demolished in 1994 to be replaced by commercial and residential developments.

On the closure of Prince Henry's hospital, the staff were invited to join the Prince Henry's nurses past trainees club, which later transformed into the Prince Henry's Affiliates, and continued until 2008 when a fund for a scholarship to support study in patient-centred acute care was established.

The ANMC was founded in 1950 by Vivian Bullwinkel and Betty Jeffrey, outstanding nurses and survivors of WWII Prisoner-of-War Camps, the Australian Nurses Memorial Centre (ANMC) was established to honour Australian nurses who lost their lives in the various theatres of wars or humanitarian operations. As part of its mission to act as "a living memorial" by advancing the nursing profession through education, the ANMC provides and administers scholarships for nurses and midwives undertaking postgraduate study at an Australian university or other accredited higher education institution.
